

Go on a road trip that's more trip. Less road.

*Spend less time planning.
More time doing.*

*Less packing.
More running around in bathing suits.*

Or golf shorts. Or cocktail dresses.

Teach your kids how to fish. And how not to. Throw another story on the fire.

Quit dealing in hypotheticals. Enough what-ifs.

*Learn what spelunking is.
Then go spelunk.*

Do all the stuff you always said you always wanted to do. But haven't.

Check the wind.

And select your club accordingly.

Skip a good skipping rock. Take better pictures.

And get used to saying,

"yes, we are there yet."

Stay close.
